

EDUCATION

---

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 4.16.10

DESCRIPTION: Four community colleges in Nevada were given the tough challenge of slicing seven percent from their operating budgets. Today their plans go the OK from the Board for Regents. The College of Southern Nevada's president presented his plan to the board during a special meeting. He said CSN will cut two million dollars from its operating budget before the end of June – and that will be close to six million dollars from next year's budget.

---

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 4.17.10

DESCRIPTION: Superintendent Walt Rullfes' contract expires at the end of August and now the Clark County School District is reaching out to the public in it's search for a new Superintendent. About twenty people in all spoke on the issue. Channel 3 owner, Jim Rogers has publicly volunteered to be the interim Superintendent. There is already a ground swelling of support from the public to support this recommendation.

---

PROGRAM TITLE: News 3 @ 11PM

TYPE: News

DATE: 5.20.10

DESCRIPTION: The Clark County School district has already eliminated five hundred and forty teacher positions. One hundred and none administrative positions have also been cut – additionally class sizes from grades first through third will be increased by two students. All elementary schools will be converted to a nine month calendar. With all these cuts the budget still needs to be balanced.